

This is a pay service just lkike cable television. If the big broadcasters feel threaten by XM Radio I think they should. Corporations have destroyed radio and this is the last outline of pure, to the point open and honest radio. The way it use to be. XM Radio has a fair product and corporate radio should work to become better instead of putting the compitition instead of looking at themselves and fixing the problem in their companies.